

Making The Christmas Season Happier

Hyde School seniors Monday entertained 16 children at a Christmas party and dinner. In the left photo, the youngsters listen to the tale of the

of King Naindian, left, of Andover, Mass., and Jed Gray of Sun Valley, Idaho. In the right photo David Hudson, 8, of Bath, pays little attention to the goings-on around the Christmas tree as he opens his gift. His host, Bob Shannon of East Longmeadow,

Mass., looks on. (By District Correspondent Dave Swearingen)

Ray Regulates Parking Meter

The new one-way traffic pattern in downtown Bath is creating a little more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

According to Bradshaw, the signs from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class continued to look at the signs and to make them more work for at least one person. Meter Parkers Ray J. Parker Jr. has had to be out of his home over some of the city's new traffic signs.

Hyde Seniors Brighten Christmas For 16 Children

BATH — Senior class members at the Hyde School have made the Christmas season a little brighter for 16 children.

The class sponsored a Christmas party and dinner in the school cafeteria for 16 children from members of the Hyde School seniors who were trying to find a way to express their own ideas for other-use of the Hyde School seniors.

"Members of the class con-

Attempt To Knock Out Chamber Aid Hike Nixed

ROCKLAND — The City of Rockland's attempt to raise the city's aid to the Chamber of Commerce has been nixed.

The city's attempt to raise the aid from $10,000 to $15,000 was defeated in a vote of 10-5 by the city council.

The city's attempt to raise the aid from $10,000 to $15,000 was defeated in a vote of 10-5 by the city council.

Three Injured In 2-Car Crash At Waldoboro

WALDOBORO — An unusual recent collision on Route 128 and three persons in the car were injured.

The collision occurred on Monday night when a car driven by a man from Waldoboro crashed into a car driven by a man from Waldoboro.

The collision occurred on Monday night when a car driven by a man from Waldoboro crashed into a car driven by a man from Waldoboro.

Posthumous Award To Be Presented

ROCKLAND — A posthumous award will be presented to a man who died in a car crash.

The award is for a man who died in a car crash on Monday night.

The award is for a man who died in a car crash on Monday night.

Rockland Woman Injured By Auto

ROCKLAND — A woman was injured in a car crash on Monday night.

The woman was injured in a car crash on Monday night.

The woman was injured in a car crash on Monday night.

Bates Instructor To Get Doctorate

ROCKLAND — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

Evaluated Maine Weather

Dr. Harris B. Stewart, in long standing last, center, made a quick evaluation of Maine weather Tuesday before starting a Coast Guard trip to look at "Pine Hill Harbor" at Bucksport, and the waterfront Maine State site in Rockland as part of the BSSA.

Dr. Harris B. Stewart, in long standing last, center, made a quick evaluation of Maine weather Tuesday before starting a Coast Guard trip to look at "Pine Hill Harbor" at Bucksport, and the waterfront Maine State site in Rockland as part of the BSSA.

Schools To Present Christmas Concert

ROCKLAND — The schools in Rockland will present a Christmas concert.

The schools in Rockland will present a Christmas concert.

The schools in Rockland will present a Christmas concert.

'Snowball' Campaign Set To Push Support For Bath Department Store

ROCKLAND — A "Snowball" campaign is being set up to push support for the Bath Department Store.

The campaign is being set up to push support for the Bath Department Store.

The campaign is being set up to push support for the Bath Department Store.

Maine's Prospects 'Really Exciting,' Curtis Tells Partisans At Brunswick

BUNSWICK — One of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Maine State Party, Curtis told his partisans at Brunswick that the prospects for the party are "really exciting."

One of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Maine State Party, Curtis told his partisans at Brunswick that the prospects for the party are "really exciting."

One of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Maine State Party, Curtis told his partisans at Brunswick that the prospects for the party are "really exciting."

Union Dog Owners Asked To Aid Clerk

ROCKLAND — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

Divorces Okayed At Wiscasset

WISCASSET — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

Union Dog Owners Asked To Aid Clerk

ROCKLAND — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

Divorces Okayed At Wiscasset

WISCASSET — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

Union Dog Owners Asked To Aid Clerk

ROCKLAND — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

Divorces Okayed At Wiscasset

WISCASSET — A man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.

The man will receive a doctorate from Bates College.